Ad hoc

for a particular purpose or need

"As well as regular reports the CFO often demands ad hoc reports when the need arises."

Check

a printed form, used instead of money to make payments from a bank account

"John didn’t provide his bank details in time for the transfer to be made, so he was paid by check instead."

Commission

a system of payment or compensation based upon earning a percentage of completed sales

"Commission is a common incentive in the sales sector as it encourages employees to sell more."
